“Thought For The Week” - by Mary Kay Ash

“Some wise person said that many men and women fail in life not for lack of ability or brains or even courage, but simply because they never have organized their energies around a central goal. So it is imperative that you set a goal with a time limit. This time limit propels you toward your goal. I have found that once you have set a deadline and broken your goal into monthly, weekly and daily achievements, the task becomes more realistic.”
